Erle Moring Named Birmingham Association of REALTORS® Rookie of the Year

Birmingham (May 2015) – In a recent announcement, the Birmingham Association of REALTORS® named Erle Moring of RealtySouth its Rookie of the Year.

The 2015 Rookie of the Year Award honors a new residential sales associate who has never been licensed to sell, trade or lease real estate in Alabama or in any other state prior to June 1, 2013, as evidenced by the date the temporary salesperson's license was issued by the Alabama Real Estate Commission. The award uses a point system and was based on the number of residential sales units closed by the sales associate from January 1, 2014, to December 31, 2014.

Moring, a sales associate in RealtySouth's Crestline office, has been a REALTOR® since September 2013 and closed 39 units in 2014. A native of Huntsville and a graduate of Auburn University, Moring has lived in Birmingham since 1994. Prior to his real estate career, he worked in mental health care sales and marketing.

Moring's managing broker, Millie Osborn, said his hard work and dedication are what have resulted in his success. "I attribute much of Erle's success to the commitment he has for his clients. His work ethic is strong and he is innovative and totally on top of the real estate market," she commented.

"RealtySouth is privileged to have Erle in our Crestline Office and on the RealtySouth team," remarked RealtySouth CEO Richard Grimes. "Winning the Rookie of the Year Award is truly a well-deserved honor. We look forward to seeing his continued success as an agent," Grimes added.
