James Harwell Installed as 2015 Birmingham Association of REALTORS® President

Birmingham (December 2014) – This month, the Birmingham Association of REALTORS® installed RealtySouth REALTOR® James Harwell as its 2015 president.

Harwell, a United States Navy veteran, has been a REALTOR® in Birmingham and central Alabama for 17 years. He holds Certified Residential Specialist, Accredited Buyer Representative and Graduate REALTOR® Institute designations. He is also a member of the Club of Excellence.

“I am honored to be taking over as the 2015 Association president and look forward to continuing the hard work that others have accomplished,” said Harwell. “This new year will be about slowing down and taking time to appreciate the great things we are pursuing in our personal lives, our businesses and here at the Birmingham Association around the community and the real estate industry.”

Passing the gavel was Chip Watts, association president for 2014. “I am excited to have James coming in as our association president next year,” said Watts. “James brings an industry experience and personal integrity that will be critical to continuing the innovation and forward progress of our association here in Birmingham on every level.”

Harwell works out of RealtySouth’s Over the Mountain office, located at 1220 Alford Avenue in Hoover.
