RealtySouth’s Faith Harper is elected to represent Alabama as National Entitlement Director for the National Association of REALTORS®

Birmingham, Ala. – November 13, 2017 – RealtySouth agent Faith Harper was selected to represent Alabama as one of two additional 2018 National Entitlement Directors for the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) during a special election held November 8, 2017. The election was held due to unforeseen growth in NAR’s membership numbers. Harper, along with newly elected Ginny Willis, will join other 2018 National Entitlement Directors Dick Chittam, Sid Pugh, Stacey Sanders, Keith Kelley, Chip Watts, Henry Ray and Julie Mostellar Minto.

The role of a National Entitlement Director is to keep up-to-date with the current issues and problems facing the National Association of REALTORS®. The position is primarily to represent all members of NAR, keeping the welfare of the entire organization in mind.

Harper has been with RealtySouth for 17 years. Early in her real estate career, she became involved with the Birmingham Association of REALTORS® (BAR). This quickly led to joining the Alabama Association of REALTORS® (AAR), where she held a director position for several years. Her interest in becoming involved at the National level with NAR was fueled by a desire to be an advocate for the real estate industry. She also aims to spread the message that, in her words, “what the real estate industry does is far reaching... and its infusion into the local economy is really astounding.” The responsibility of a NAR Director to represent the entire membership and keep abreast of current issues will allow Harper to accomplish this goal, spread that message, and better serve her Local industry.
