FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Only one Alabama agent hits the nation's top 250 list – Stephanie Robinson

Birmingham, Ala. – November 10, 2017 – With more than 1.2 million REALTORS® in the United States, it is no small feat for RealtySouth Agent Stephanie Robinson to rank among the nation's top 250 in sales volume.

The Thousand, as recently published in the Wall Street Journal, is the list of top real estate agents in the nation. Robinson ranks 173 in sales volume. According to Grimes, Robinson has been the leading agent for the state and company for a decade.

“It comes as no surprise to me or her colleagues that Stephanie Robinson would be recognized for her hard work and national prominence. Bottom line, she is a phenomenal agent,” Richard Grimes, the company's president and chief executive officer, shared.

The accomplishments of Alabama and RealtySouth's leading agent, Stephanie Robinson, are a direct reflection of the agent's work ethic.

“Stephanie's top priority is to nurture the needs of those she serves. She is constantly striving to provide the utmost of service and professionalism to her clients. Her expertise coupled with a love for the profession and desire to help the community flourish, have led to her undeniable success. We are proud of her success and happy to have her call RealtySouth home,” he further shared.
